

MOOD AND POLARITY AND POLARITY MARKING AND TENSE AND VOICE

COMPLETE THE TABLE (SPOKEN STYLE) (Note: you can't always distinguish the 'marked' forms from the 'unmarked' forms in writing.)

	PRESENT PROGRESSIVE	SIMPLE PRESENT	SIMPLE PAST	PRESENT PERFECT
ACTIVE
[declarative/positive]	she's taking them		she took them	she's taken them
[y-n-interrog/positive]	is she taking them?	does she take them?
[declarative/negative]	she isn't taking them
[y-n-interrog/negative]	isn't she taking them?	doesn't she take them?	didn't she take them?	hasn't she taken them?
[declar/pos: marked]	she is taking them	she does take them
[declar/neg: marked]	she is not taking them		she did not take them
[wh-interrog.: wh-subj.]	who's taking them?	who takes them?
[wh-interrog.: wh-other]	what's she taking?		what did she take?
“BE”-PASSIVE
[declarative/positive]	they're being taken
[y-n-interrog/positive]	are they being taken?
[declarative/negative]	they aren't being taken			they haven't been taken
[y-n-interrog/negative]	aren't they being taken?		weren't they taken?
[declar/pos: marked]	they are being taken
[declar/neg: marked]	they are not being taken	they are not taken
“GET”-PASSIVE
[declarative/positive]	they're getting taken	they get taken
[y-n-interrog/positive]	are they getting taken?			have they got taken?
[declarative/negative]	they aren't getting taken
[y-n-interrog/negative]	aren't they getting taken?		didn't they get taken?
[declar/pos: marked]	they are getting taken
[declar/neg: marked]	they are not getting taken	they do not get taken		